OFFICE OF THE MUZRAI COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE BANGALORE. No. H.C. 81/34-35 26. DEC. 1934

The practice of detailing Biradaries from the Mysore Horse for the safe conveyance of Gudis to Melkote and Nanjangud and back to the Palace at Mysore is said to be in vogue from time immemorial. As these Gudis are very valuable, it is very necessary to depute the Biradaries both for escort and patrol duty. Allowances in kind are paid to the Biradars both at Nanjangud and Melkote when they visit the places along with the Gudis. The payment of the other charges does not now appear to be called for these ancient services.

Dear Mr. Ranga Rao,

It is observed from this office records that for several years past the Commandant, Mysore Horse, Mysore, has been complying with requisitions received direct from the Palace and the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, for Biradaries from the Mysore Horse to be detailed to Melkote and Nanjungud for patrol duty and escort of Vairamudi as detailed in the margin.

1 N.C.O. & 9 sowars for patrol duty in connection with Vairamudi Jatra at Melkote - Requisition from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore.	I am not sure how far these demands are authorised and have to be complied with, especially in view of the limited establishment of the Mysore Horse and the shortage of horses.
4 Sowars for escort duty to accompany Vairamudi and Rajamudi to Melkote.
4 Sowars for escort duty to accompany Srikanta Mudi to Nanjungud - Requisition from Palace.

I shall be much obliged if you will enlighten me on this subject.

If these demands have to be complied with, I suggest that a small charge should be made and credited to the Remount Fund.

Yours sincerely,
